

Chesson Road, London W14

Asking price £1,425,000 Freehold

Description

Nestled in a quiet residential road, this inviting 3 bedroom mid-terrace house on Chesson Road 130 yards from Normand Park's lush greenery, outdoor gym and playground, and within half a mile to West Kensington station this location provides an ideal balance of urban convenience and peaceful living. This charming property unfolds across multiple levels, each floor revealing thoughtfully designed spaces that cater to modern living while retaining classic appeal.

The lower ground floor welcomes you with an elegant living room that flows seamlessly into a comfortable dining area, then a semi-separate kitchen, with its direct access to the rear garden.

Ascending to the ground floor, you'll find a generous double reception room, spanning an impressive 27'8" x 16', perfect for entertaining or family gatherings. A small study tucked away on this level offering a quiet workspace.

The first floor houses 2 spacious double bedrooms with integrated storage and a well-appointed family bathroom. Crowning the home is the top floor master suite, a luxurious retreat measuring 19'1" x 15'11", complete with its own en-suite bathroom for ultimate privacy and comfort.

This thoughtfully designed home seamlessly blends period charm with modern living, offering a versatile and inviting space for those seeking a peaceful urban oasis.
